LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

A couple of months ago my gas bill went up $50 a month and I haven't used any heat since April. I do have a gas BBQ but I only use it once a week, so not enough to justify this increase. I'm concerned about paying more as this last increase already put me over the top. What will my bill be like in the winter when I actually use gas to heat my house. At this point gas is getting as expensive as hydro. Not good for us seniors.
