LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

Hello, I am writing to voice my objection to any increase to my gas bill. I am speaking for other people who like myself are barely getting by on a disability pension or single parents with low incomes and seniors. We cannot take another hit at this time. Please exclude us from the increase. We do not get more income with inflation so please do not raise our gas bills. Raise it for those who can afford it without going hungry. Thank you for listening. Best regards, Katherine
