

UNDERTAKING J7.2

Undertaking

With reference to JT2.26, page 18, to explain how much of the billion dollar reduction is from nuclear, and how much of the 2,330 headcount reduction applies to nuclear.

Response

The portion of the referenced 2,330 headcount reduction to the end of 2016 attributable to nuclear ongoing operations, including related allocation of corporate support services reductions is approximately 1,630. The portion of the billion dollar savings expected over the period 2011 to 2016 attributable to nuclear ongoing operations, including related allocation of corporate support services reductions is approximately $755M.
