IN THE MATTER OF the Ontario Energy Board Act,
1998, S.O.1998, c. 15, Schedule B;

AND IN THE MATTER OF an application by Great Lakes Power Limited for an electricity distribution licence and an electricity transmission licence.

By delegation, before: Jennifer Lea

DECISION AND ORDER

Great Lakes Power Limited filed applications dated October 20, 2008 with the Ontario Energy Board under section 60(1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for renewal of its electricity distribution and electricity transmission licences.

The Board's Notice of Application and Written Hearing for an electricity distribution licence was published on December 15, 2008. Dubreuil Forest Products Limited, as the applicant's embedded distributor, was served the Notice on December 11, 2008. The Board's Notice of Application and Written Hearing for an electricity transmission licence was published on December 17, 2008.

In a letter dated December 29, 2008, Algoma Coalition responded to the Notices. Algoma Coalition proposed that each of the applicant's electricity distributor and electricity transmission licences be granted or renewed with the added condition that the applicant be required "to conduct annual stakeholder meetings with major customers and with the Algoma Coalition."

The applicant filed a reply submission on January 8, 2009. The applicant submitted that it does not agree that the proposed condition be added to the two licences.

FINDINGS

The Algoma Coalition's proposal of an annual stakeholder meeting requirement arose from another proceeding, an application for transmission rates. It was agreed to as part of a settlement of issues in that case. The applicant submitted that it has fulfilled its commitment with respect to the matter, the condition proposed by the Algoma Coalition is not included in the licence of any other electricity distributor or transmitter in Ontario, and that the Algoma Coalition has not demonstrated that there have been any deficiencies in the applicant's communications with its stakeholders or any other reason that warrants such a condition being added to the licence.

The Board agrees with the applicant. The fact that the parties agreed to this condition as part of a settlement in a previous proceeding does not mean that this condition should be added as a condition in GLPL's licences. I do not find that there are any circumstances surrounding the utility or its behaviour in regard to settlements reached in its rate cases that persuade me that such a unique condition should be added to the licences. I do not find that it is desirable in this case to use a licence condition as an enforcement tool for a provision in a settlement agreement.

GLPL is licensed as a distributor, transmitter, and generator. Section 71 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 states that a "transmitter or distributor shall not, except through one or more affiliates, carry on any business activity other than transmitting or distributing electricity." However, GLPL had an exemption from section 71 of the Act until December 31, 2008. GLPL is currently in the process of bringing itself into compliance with section 71 of the Act by filing a number of licence and MAADs applications. If approved, those applications may result in the cancellation of the licences being issued under this Decision and Order. While I find that it is in the public interest to issue the electricity distribution and electricity transmission licences under Part V of the Act to ensure the continued reliable supply of electricity, I find that instead of the standard 20 year term for the licences, the licences will be issued for a two year term. It is expected that the reorganization of GLPL in order to comply with section 71 of the Act will be completed well within that timeframe.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The applications for an electricity distribution licence and an electricity transmission licence are granted, on such conditions as are contained in the attached licences.

DATED at Toronto, February 2, 2009.

APPENDIX A

MARKET POWER MITIGATION REBATES

1. Definitions and Interpretations

In this Licence

“embedded distributor” means a distributor who is not a market participant and to whom a host distributor distributes electricity;

“embedded generator” means a generator who is not a market participant and whose generation facility is connected to a distribution system of a distributor, but does not include a generator who consumes more electricity than it generates;

“host distributor” means a distributor who is a market participant and who distributes electricity to another distributor who is not a market participant.

In this Licence, a reference to the payment of a rebate amount by the IESO includes interim payments made by the IESO.

2. Information Given to IESO

- a Prior to the payment of a rebate amount by the IESO to a distributor, the distributor shall provide the IESO, in the form specified by the IESO and before the expiry of the period specified by the IESO, with information in respect of the volumes of electricity withdrawn by the distributor from the IESO-controlled grid during the rebate period and distributed by the distributor in the distributor's service area to:
 - i consumers served by a retailer where a service transaction request as defined in the Retail Settlement Code has been implemented; and
 - ii consumers other than consumers referred to in clause (i) who are not receiving the fixed price under sections 79.4, 79.5 and 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998.
- b Prior to the payment of a rebate amount by the IESO to a distributor which relates to electricity consumed in the service area of an embedded distributor, the embedded distributor shall provide the host distributor, in the form specified by the IESO and before the expiry of the period specified in the Retail Settlement Code, with the volumes of electricity distributed during the rebate period by the embedded distributor's host distributor to the embedded distributor net of any electricity distributed to the embedded distributor which is attributable to embedded generation and distributed by the embedded distributor in the embedded distributor's service area to:
 - i consumers served by a retailer where a service transaction request as defined in the Retail Settlement Code has been implemented; and
 - ii consumers other than consumers referred to in clause (i) who are not receiving the fixed price under sections 79.4, 79.5 and 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998.

The IESO shall rely on the information provided to it by distributors and there shall be no opportunity to correct any such information or provide any additional information and all amounts paid shall be final and binding and not subject to any adjustment.

For the purposes of attributing electricity distributed to an embedded distributor to embedded generation, the volume of electricity distributed by a host distributor to an embedded distributor shall be deemed to consist of electricity withdrawn from the IESO-controlled grid or supplied to the host distributor by an embedded generator in the same proportion as the total volume of electricity withdrawn from the IESO-controlled grid by the distributor in the rebate period bears to the total volume of electricity supplied to the distributor by embedded generators during the rebate period.

3. Pass Through of Rebate

A distributor shall promptly pass through, with the next regular bill or settlement statement after the rebate amount is received, any rebate received from the IESO, together with interest at the Prime Rate, calculated and accrued daily, on such amount from the date of receipt, to:

The amounts paid out to the recipients listed above shall be based on energy consumed and calculated in accordance with the rules set out in the Retail Settlement Code. These payments may be made by way of set off at the option of the distributor.

If requested in writing by OPGI, the distributor shall ensure that all rebates are identified as coming from OPGI in the following form on or with each applicable bill or settlement statement:

“ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC. rebate”

Any rebate amount which cannot be distributed as provided above or which is returned by a retailer to the distributor in accordance with its licence shall be promptly returned to the host distributor or IESO as applicable, together with interest at the Prime Rate, calculated and accrued daily, on such amount from the date of receipt.

Nothing shall preclude an agreement whereby a consumer assigns the benefit of a rebate payment to a retailer or another party.
