Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: COLLUS Power Corp. – 2009 Draft Rate Order
Vulnerable Energy Consumers Coalition (VECC) Comments
Board File: EB-2008-0226

As counsel for the Vulnerable Energy Consumers Coalition's (VECC) I am writing to provide comments regarding COLLUS' Draft Rate Order circulated April 21st, 2009. I apologize for not submitting these comments before the required deadline, it was entirely through my own oversight, and ask that the Board consider our submission.

VECC's first comment is that, contrary to the Board's direction (page 31), COLLUS has not provided any supporting calculations showing the allocation of the approved revenue requirement to classes or the determination of the final rates. As a result VECC has been unable to review/verify whether the final rates are in accordance with the Board's Decision.

VECC also notes that the Draft Rate Order does not provide a clear demonstration that the revenues at the proposed rates and approved load forecast actually reconcile with the approved revenue requirement.

It is VECC's view that, at a minimum, Board Staff should work with COLLUS so that these matters can be confirmed.

Yours truly,

Michael Buonaguro
Counsel for VECC
