Dear Mr. Hewson:

Re: Greater Sudbury Hydro Inc. Compliance with the Affiliate Relationships Code

Thank you for your letter of July 13, 2006.

In response to your compliance concerns with respect to its website, our client is in the process of modifying the site content. In the meantime, it has changed its website so that it informs users that the website is "under construction" and provides no other information.

Before deciding exactly what to do and how to do it with respect to its affiliates, our client would appreciate an opportunity to meet with you to discuss with you its preliminary plan and work through some of the details. This would help us all avoid a false start. Mr. Reeves, the President of our client, is away on vacation this week, but we could welcome an opportunity to meet with you as soon as possible thereafter. We trust that having such a meeting, and then providing a formal action plan which flows from our discussions, is satisfactory to you.

My assistant, Tijana Glavonjic, will call you to set up a meeting on a convenient date.

Yours truly,

GOODMANS LLP
