Our File No. B-19547/07

Our above clients have reviewed the above matter with us and requested us to hereby give notice to the Board of our clients' desire to make comment and in due course, to make an oral presentation.

As our clients are parties directly affected, and because of the necessary propose taking of lands, there appears to be no reason to require intervener status.

It would appear that our clients will be able to make all appropriate representations. If it is your understanding that our client will not be able to make appropriate representations, then you should so indicate the reasons why.

To the extent that our clients will make representations, you should note that they will be both written and oral, as the matter progresses.

In the interim, our clients require full disclosure of all documents and reports.

You should also indicate how our clients will be compensated for our clients' costs in preparation.
