Re: Notice of Further Revised Proposed Customer Service Amendments to the Distribution System Code, the Retail Settlement Code and the Standard
Supply Service Code
Board File No.: EB-2007-0722

Extension of Deadline for Submitting Comments to April 12, 2010

On March 12, 2010, the Board issued a Notice of Further Revised Proposed Customer Service Code Amendments. The Notice sought comments in the areas where material changes were proposed relative to the October 1, 2009 Notice. The Board set April 5, 2010 as the date by which stakeholders were to file their comments.

A number of utilities have contacted the Board to advise that their offices will be closed on both April 2 (Good Friday) and April 5 (Easter Monday) and have requested an extension of the deadline for submitting their comments. In addition, utilities have indicated that they plan to provide comments on a number of other consultations that the Board has initiated with deadlines the last week of March and first week of April.

The Board has reviewed the requests received and is agreeable to extending the due date for comments on the Notice of Further Revised Proposed Customer Service Code Amendments to Monday April 12, 2010.

Yours truly,
