Dear Ms. Walli:

RE: EB-2007-0050 – ACCR Evidence

I am writing to advise that the Ross Firm Group will not be calling any witness panel to address the ACCR evidence. The Ross Firm Group will however be using the information contained therein as an aid to cross-examination of the Applicant's witness panels.

We have advised the Applicant of this fact, and have further advised that the most relevant information will pertain to conductor sizes 744 and up.

It is important to note that the ACCR evidence may be used differently by other intervenors.

Yours very truly,

The Ross Firm PC
