Attention: Ms. Kirsten Walli

Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: EB-2010-0008 - Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG")
2011-2012 Payment Amounts for Prescribed Facilities

Further to OPG's letters of August 12, 2010 and August 17, 2010 in which it requested confidential treatment of certain information in its interrogatory responses and the Board's Procedural Order No. 6, OPG notes that no party to proceeding has objected to its request for such treatment. As a result, OPG has no formal reply submissions to make and reiterates its request made in its August 12, 2010 and August 17, 2010 letters.

OPG notes that Mr. Thompson, counsel to Canadian Manufacturers & Exporters, sets out in his letter of August 23, 2010 (the "CME Letter"), various concerns related to OPG's responses to interrogatories L- 4-001 and L-5-010. Notwithstanding the concerns expressed by CME's counsel, OPG is of a view that the CME Letter does not constitute a motion by CME and that no action is requested of the OEB at this time. As such, OPG does not intend to reply to the CME Letter at this time, but reserves its right to do so in the future.

Yours truly,
