ARTICLE 11

POST-CLOSING COVENANTS

11.1 Access to Books and Records

For a period of five years following the date hereof or, in the case of tax matters referred to in Section 11.2 for the period commencing as at the date hereof and ending on the 60th Business Day after the last day of the applicable limitation period under any applicable law expires which is relevant in determining any liability under this Agreement with respect to such particular tax matter, the Purchaser shall, during reasonable business hours and upon at least 48 hours prior notice from the Vendor, provide the Vendor or their representatives with access to any and all of the books and records of the Company existing as of the date hereof, or which affect any calculations, obligations or rights of the Vendor under this Agreement.

11.2 Final Tax Return

(a) The Vendor shall, at the Vendor's expense, prepare or cause to be prepared the Tax Returns of the Company in respect of Taxes for the periods ending as a consequence of the Closing Date (collectively, the "Final Tax Returns"). The Purchaser shall cause the Company to issue and file all such forms and notices as may be required in connection with such Final Tax Returns. To assist the Vendor for these purposes, the Purchaser shall provide to the Vendor and their authorized representatives such reasonable cooperation, assistance and access to relevant books, records and personnel as may be required for timely and accurate preparation of the Final Tax Returns. Within 60 days after preparation by the Purchaser and approval of such returns by the Vendor's accountant, the Vendor shall provide such returns to the Purchaser for its review, together with any supporting documentation as may be reasonably required by the Purchaser in respect of such review. The Purchaser shall have 30 days thereafter to review the Final Tax Returns. If the Purchaser fails to object to any item or matter in the Final Tax Returns within such 30 days period then the Final Tax Return will be considered determinative of the Tax liability of the Company in respect of the periods covered by the Final Tax Returns. The Purchaser may object within such 30 day period by giving notice to the Vendor setting out in reasonable detail the nature of such objection. The Parties agree to use their best efforts to resolve the dispute within 15 days from the date that the Purchaser gives such notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser and the Vendor cannot resolve the dispute within such 15 day period, the dispute shall be resolved in favour of the Purchaser for the purpose of enabling the Purchaser to file such Final Tax Returns in a timely manner (as set forth in the last sentence of this Section 11.2(a)), provided that the Final Tax Returns are prepared in accordance with all applicable law, and provided further that, the Vendor may refer the dispute to the Independent

Accountant. The Independent Accountant shall, as promptly as practicable (but in any event within 45 days following its appointment), make a determination in respect of the dispute concerning the Final Tax Returns based on submissions of the Purchaser and the Vendor to the Independent Accountant. The decision of the Independent Accountant as to the dispute concerning the Final Tax Returns shall be final and binding upon the Parties. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Independent Accountant with respect to the resolution of the dispute. Thereafter, the Purchaser shall, in a timely manner, cause such returns to be executed and filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority and if required, file a Notice of Objection if the Final Tax Return has already been assessed. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall each pay one-half of any solicitor fees arising from filing a Notice of Objection.

(b) The Vendor shall remit to the Governmental Authority all amounts shown as bearing a Taxes balance due on the Final Tax Return. For greater certainty, the Vendor shall be responsible for all Taxes accrued by the Company up to and including the Closing Date.

(c) In the event of a reassessment by a Governmental Authority of the Final Tax Returns in respect of Taxes for the periods ending on and before the Closing Date, the Vendor has the right at its sole expense to dispute and contest in the name of the Company, such reassessment. The payment of any reassessment by the Vendor, in respect of Taxes pursuant to this Agreement on behalf of the Company, shall be repaid to the Vendor, if repaid by the taxing authority. The Purchaser shall provide reasonable cooperation with the Vendor and their counsel in all proceedings with respect to any such reassessment.

11.3 Covenants Relating to Title and Tax

The Vendor covenants and agrees that:

(a) If, at any time, any person, other than the Purchaser makes a claim that as of or before the Closing Date: (i) it owned, or had an agreement or option to purchase, any of the Company Shares, or (ii) the Company Shares or any portion of the Company Shares were owned by it and not by the Vendor, then the Vendor shall take all steps and do all actions necessary to eliminate such claim such that the intent and object of this Agreement remains fulfilled.

(b) If, at any time, any Governmental Authority makes a Claim for payment of a Tax liability from the Company owing or accruing up to and including the Closing Date which was not reflected in the Closing Date Financial Statements or the Final Tax Returns for any reason, including a misrepresentation made or fraud committed in filing a Tax Return, then the Vendor shall take all steps and do all actions necessary to eliminate such claim, including, if required, the payment of the Tax liability claimed by the Governmental Authority in excess of the amount reflected in the Closing Date Financial Statements or the Final Tax Returns and any and all fines, penalties and interest associated therewith.

11.4 Co-operation

Following the Closing Date, the Parties shall co-operate and provide all reasonable assistance as may be reasonably requested by a Party in order to enable the Party to file any documentation relating to the transaction contemplated herein as may be required by any Governmental Authority.

11.5 Employees

The Purchaser acknowledges that the obligations of the Company to its Employees will not be affected in any way by this Agreement, or by the Closing, and the Purchaser further acknowledges that the Company will be responsible for any liability or consequences in the event that the Company terminates any Employees or changes the terms of employment for such Employees and, subject to the Vendor's negligence or willful misconduct related to the treatment of the Employees before Closing, the Company will indemnify the Vendor and hold it harmless from such liability or consequences. The Purchaser specifically agrees that the Employees of the Company shall be transferred such that they shall become direct employees of either the Company or the Purchaser or one of the Purchaser's wholly-owned subsidiaries on or before the Closing and that such transfer shall be in compliance with the current union collective agreement affecting such Employees. The Vendor and the Purchaser agree to act reasonably with respect to the transfer of the Employees of the Company.

11.6 Lease Agreement

The Company shall have the right to continue to use, on a non-exclusive basis, the leased premises at 17 Park Lane, Clinton, Ontario as an operations centre for servicing the Company's customers for a period of 2 years after Closing on the same terms and conditions as currently are in place between the Vendor and the Company, and in accordance with paragraph 8 of the Term Sheet.

11.7 Service Quality Indicators

The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that, after Closing, the Company satisfies, and continues to satisfy, the OEB's Service Quality Indicators as attached at Schedule 11.7, as amended, and the Purchaser shall monitor the Company and commit that the standards set in the OEB's Service Quality Indicators are met.

11.8 Substation Rebuild

The Company shall fund and undertake the current planned rebuilding of the Company's substation.

11.9 Water and Sewer Billing

In the event that the Vendor continues to purchase water and sewer billing services from Erie Thames Services Corporation following Closing, the Purchaser agrees that the water and sewer accounts will be billed, and the data collected will be converted and transferred if required, in accordance with section 9 of the Term Sheet.

INDEMNITY AND SET-OFF

The representations, warranties, covenants and other obligations contained in this agreement and in any Closing Document shall not merge on the Closing, and notwithstanding the Closing or any investigation made by any Party with respect hereto, shall continue in full force and effect.

12.2 Exclusive Remedy

All claims by any Party after Closing in respect of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any Closing Document shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this Article 12 and the rights of the set-off and indemnity in this Article 12 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of any Party in respect of such claims.

12.3 Indemnification by the Vendor

Subject to the limitations in Section 12.5 and 12.6, the Vendor shall indemnify, defend and save harmless the Purchaser and its successors and assigns from and against any and all Loss suffered or incurred by them, as a direct or indirect result of, or arising in connection with or related in any manner whatever to:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty made or given by the Vendor in this Agreement or in any Closing Document;

(c) any representation or warranty made or given by the Vendor being misleading, incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect.

(d) any failure by the Vendor to observe or perform any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement or in any Closing Document;

(e) any failure of the Vendor to transfer good and valid title to the Company Shares to the Purchaser, free and clear of all Encumbrances except Permitted Encumbrances;

(f) all debts or liabilities, contingent or otherwise (including liabilities for Taxes) existing at the Closing Date, required to be but not disclosed in the Closing Date Financial Statements;

(g) all contingent liabilities (including all costs, payments and charges whatsoever relative to any litigation which the Company becomes obligated to pay), existing at the Closing Date, to the extent required to be but not disclosed in the Closing Date Financial Statements; and

(h) subject to Section 11.2, any assessment or re-assessment by any Governmental Authority in respect of any Tax or Taxes (including any Taxes owing pursuant to the Final Tax Returns) owing by the Company that relate to any period or periods ending on or before the Closing Date.

12.4 Indemnification by the Purchaser

Subject to the limitations in Sections 12.5 and 12.6, the Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and save harmless the Vendor and its successors and assigns from and against any and all Loss suffered or incurred by them, as a direct or indirect result of, or arising in connection with or related in any manner whatever related to:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty made or given by the Purchaser in this Agreement or in any Closing Document;

(b) any fraudulent act or fraudulent omission of the Purchaser with respect to any representation or warranty given by the Purchaser under this Agreement or in any Closing Document;

(c) any representation or warranty made or given by the Purchaser being misleading, incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect;

(d) any failure by the Purchaser to observe or perform any covenant or obligations contained in this Agreement or in any Closing Document;

(e) any failure of the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries to hold good and valid title to Real Property and Personal Property;

(f) all debts or liabilities, contingent or otherwise (including liabilities for Taxes) existing at the Closing Date, required to be but not disclosed in the Closing Date Financial Statements;

(g) all contingent liabilities (including all costs, payments and charges whatsoever relative to any litigation which the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries become obligated to pay), existing at the Closing Date, to the extent required to be but not disclosed in the Closing Date Financial Statements;

(h) subject to Section 11.2, any assessment or re-assessment by any Governmental Authority in respect of any Tax or Taxes (including any Taxes owing pursuant to the Final Tax Returns) owing by the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries that relate to any period or periods ending on or before the Closing Date;

(i) any breach of Laws by the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries occurring on or before the Closing Date;

(j) any Claim or Legal Proceeding brought against the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries for any act(s), omission(s) or state of facts that occurred on or before the Closing Date; and

(k) any failure of the Purchaser to validly issue to the Vendor the Payment Shares and the Voting Share.

12.5 Time Limitations

(a) Subject to Section 12.5(c), the Vendor shall have no liability to the Purchaser for any Loss arising from any Claim described in Section 12.3 unless the Purchaser gives notice to the Vendor specifying in reasonable detail the factual basis of the Claim on or before the second anniversary of the Closing Date.

(b) Subject to Section 12.5(c), the Purchaser shall have no liability to the Vendor for any Loss arising from any Claim described in Section 12.4 unless (i) the Vendor gives notice to the Purchaser specifying in reasonable detail the factual basis of the Claim on or before the second anniversary of the Closing Date and (ii) at the time of such notice, the Put Option Purchase Price has not been paid to the Vendor by the Purchaser.

(c) Despite the provisions of Sections 12.5(a) and 12.5(b), notice with respect to Claims relating to (i) environmental issues related to the Company may be given on or before the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, (ii) environmental issues related to the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries may be given on or before the tenth anniversary of the Closing Date if, at the time of such notice, the Put Option Purchase Price has not been paid to the Vendor by the Purchaser, and (iii) Tax matters may be given at any time after Closing and prior to the 60th day following the last to expire of any time within which an assessment, reassessment or similar document may be issued under any applicable Law.

12.6 Limitations on Amount

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 12:

(a) no Claim or Claims may be asserted by the Purchaser under Section 12.3 unless the aggregate amount of the Losses of the Purchaser in respect of such Claim or Claims is at least $10,000, in which event the amount of all such Losses, including such $10,000 amount, may be asserted;

(b) no Claim or Claims may be asserted by the Vendor under Section 12.4 unless the aggregate amount of the Losses of the Vendor in respect of such Claim or Claims is at least $10,000, in which event the amount of all such Losses, including such $10,000 amount, may be asserted; and

(c) the aggregate amount of Losses by the Vendor in respect of a Claim or Claims asserted by the Vendor under Section 12.4 to be paid by the Purchaser hereunder, excluding any out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by the Vendor in defending such claim or claims and any losses incurred by the Vendor as a shareholder of the Purchaser, shall not exceed the Put Option Purchase Price.

12.7 Notice of Third Party Claim

If an Indemnitee receives notice of the commencement or assertion of any Third Party Claim, the Indemnitee shall give the Indemnitor reasonably prompt notice thereof, but in any event no later than 30 days after receipt of such notice of such Third Party Claim. Such notice to the Indemnitor shall describe the Third Party Claim in reasonable detail, shall indicate, if reasonably practicable, the estimated amount of the Loss that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnitee, and shall include copies of any written or electronic correspondence, material, reports or documents.

12.8 Defence of Third Party Claims

The Indemnitor may participate in or assume the defence of any Third Party Claim by giving notice to that effect to the Indemnitee not later than 30 days after receiving notice of that Third Party Claim (the "Notice Period"). The Indemnitor's right to do so shall be subject to the rights of any insurer or other party who has potential liability in respect of that Third Party Claim. The Indemnitor shall pay all of its own expenses of participating in or assuming such defence. The Indemnitee shall co-operate in good faith and in the defence of each Third Party Claim, even if the defence has been assumed by the Indemnitor and may participate in such defence assisted by counsel of its own choice at its own expense. If an Indemnitee has not received notice within the Notice Period that the Indemnitor has elected to assume the defence of such Third Party Claim, the Indemnitee may, at its option, elect to settle or compromise the Third Party Claim or assume such defence, assisted by counsel of its own choosing and the Indemnitor shall be liable for all reasonable costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith and for any Loss suffered or incurred by the Indemnitee with respect to such Third Party Claim. If the Indemnitor elects to assume the defence of a Third Party Claim under this Section 12.8, the Indemnitor shall not have the right thereafter to contest its liability for such claim.

12.9 Assistance for Third Party Claims

The Indemnitor and the Indemnitee will use all reasonable efforts to make available to the Party, which is undertaking and controlling the defence of any Third Party Claim (the "Defending Party"),

(a) those employees and other persons whose assistance, testimony or presence is necessary to assist the Defending Party in evaluating and defending any Third Party Claim; and

(b) all documents, records and other materials in the possession of such Party reasonably required by the Defending Party for its use in defending any Third Party Claim, and shall otherwise cooperate with the Defending Party. The Indemnitor shall be responsible for all reasonable expenses associated with making such documents, records and materials available and for all reasonable expenses (excluding salaries) of any employees or other persons made available by the Indemnitee to the Indemnitor hereunder.

12.10 Settlement of Third Party Claims

If an Indemnitor elects to assume the defence of any Third Party Claim as provided in Section 12.8, the Indemnitor shall not be liable for any legal expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with the defence of such Third Party Claim following the receipt by the Indemnitee of notice of such assumption. However, if the Indemnitor fails to take reasonable steps necessary to defend diligently such Third Party Claim within 30 days after receiving notice from the Indemnitee or if the Indemnitee believes on reasonable grounds that the Indemnitor has failed to take such steps, the Indemnitee may, at its option, elect to assume the defence of and to negotiate, settle or compromise the Third Party Claim assisted by counsel of its own choosing and the Indemnitor shall also be liable for all reasonable costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith. The Indemnitor shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnitee, enter into any compromise or settlement of a Third Party Claim, which would lead to liability or create any other obligation, financial or otherwise, on the Indemnitee.

12.11 Direct Claims

Any Direct Claim shall be asserted by giving the Indemnitor reasonably prompt written notice thereof, but in any event not later than 60 days after the Indemnitee becomes aware of such Direct Claim. The Indemnitor shall then have a period of 30 days within which to respond in writing to such Direct Claim. If the Indemnitor does not so respond within such 30 day period, the Indemnitor shall be deemed to have rejected such Claim, and in such event the Indemnitee shall be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to the Indemnitee.

12.12 Failure to Give Timely Notice

Except as described in Section 12.5, a failure to give timely notice as provided in this Article 12 shall not affect the rights or obligations of any Party except and only to the extent that, as a result of such failure, any Party which was entitled to receive such notice was deprived of its right to recover any payment under its applicable insurance coverage or was otherwise directly and materially damaged as a result of such failure.

12.13 Reductions and Subrogation

If the amount of any Loss at any time subsequent to the making of an Indemnity Payment in respect of that Loss is reduced by any recovery, settlement or otherwise under or pursuant to any insurance coverage, or pursuant to any claim, recovery, settlement or payment by or against any other person, the amount of such reduction (less any costs, expenses, including Taxes, or premiums incurred in connection therewith), shall promptly be repaid by the Indemnatee to the Indemnitor. Upon making a full Indemnity Payment, the Indemnitor shall, to the extent of such Indemnity Payment, be subrogated to all rights of the Indemnatee against any third party that is not an Affiliate of the Indemnatee in respect of the Loss to which the Indemnity Payment relates. Until the Indemnatee recovers full payment of its Loss, any and all claims of the Indemnitor against any such third party on account of such Indemnity Payment shall be postponed and subordinated in right of payment to the Indemnatee's rights against such third party. Without limiting the generality or effect of any provision hereof, the Indemnatee and Indemnitor shall duly execute upon request all instruments reasonably necessary to evidence and perfect such postponement and subordination.

12.14 Tax Effect

If any Indemnity Payment received by an Indemnatee would constitute taxable income to such Indemnatee, the Indemnitor shall pay to the Indemnatee at the same time and on the same terms, as to interest and otherwise, as the Indemnity Payment an additional amount sufficient to place the Indemnatee in the same after-Tax position as it would have been if the Indemnity Payment had been received tax-free.

12.15 Payment and Interest

All Losses shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Bank of Canada's prime rate, calculated and payable monthly, both before and after judgment, with interest on overdue interest at the same rate, from the date that the Indemnatee disbursed funds, suffered damages or losses or incurred a loss, liability or expense in respect of a Loss, to the date of payment by the Indemnitor to the Indemnatee.

12.16 Additional Rules and Procedures

(a) If any Third Party Claim is of a nature such that the Indemnatee is required by Law to make a payment to any person (a "Third Party") with respect to such Third Party

Claim before the completion of settlement negotiations or related legal proceedings, the Indemnatee may make such payment and the Indemnitor shall, forthwith after demand by the Indemnatee, reimburse the Indemnatee for any such payment. If the amount of any liability under the Third Party Claim in respect of which such a payment was made, as finally determined, is less than the amount which was paid by the Indemnitor to the Indemnatee, the Indemnatee shall, forthwith after receipt of the difference from the Third Party, pay such difference to the Indemnitor;

(b) The Indemnatee and the Indemnitor shall co-operate fully with each other with respect to Third Party Claims, shall keep each other fully advised with respect thereto (including supplying copies of relevant documentation promptly as it becomes available) and shall each designate a senior officer who will keep himself informed about and be prepared to discuss the Third Party Claim with his counterpart and with counsel at all reasonable times.
