I read the notice in the paper today and I'll admit that until I read it I was unaware of the situation. I feel the distinctive Canadian sensation that proceeds having my pocket picked once again. If I understand the proposal; I a ratepayer that pays my bill on time, every time, including the rate increases, HST. debt retirement charges, etc., am about to be penalized for the people who pay late and for the management that imposed late payment fees. I and other ratepayers and tax payers should not be held responsible. We plead innocent. DON'T FINE US. Try collecting the money from the high paid management decision makers. I don't know what the settlement amounts to but I suggest that it be appealed if it is so large that us ratepayers are about to be forced to make contributions to settle the claim. This is not our responsibility! Sincerely, Sally P. Wilkie, [REDACTED]
