Re: File No. EB-2010-0295

I am against allowing the Affected Electricity Distributors to recovery their losses incurred under Court File No. 94-CQ-50878 from their ratepayers. The losses from the Affected Electricity Distributors misconduct should be taken directly from their revenue and the bonuses, if applicable, that they pay to their executives and employees.

It is completely unacceptable that ratepayers, whether they be private / public companies or private citizens, should be responsible for paying for the Affected Electricity Distributors misconduct. The Affected Electricity Distributors need to take responsibility for their misconduct in order to prevent or deter such behaviour; passing the penalties onto ratepayers will not deter future misconduct by the Affected Electricity Distributors.

Regards,
Sheri Mills
