

May 29, 2012

Ms. Kirsten Walli
Ontario Energy Board
2300 Yonge Street, Suite 2700
Toronto, Ontario
M4P 1E4

RE: EB-2011-0210 – Union Gas Limited – 2013 Rates Application
Responses to LPMA Interrogatories

Dear Ms. Walli,

Please find attached Union's responses to the interrogatories filed by London Property Management Association ("LPMA").

Yours truly,

[original signed by]

Chris Ripley
Manager, Regulatory Applications

cc: Crawford Smith, Torys
EB-2011-0210 Intervenors

UNION GAS LIMITED

Answer to Interrogatory from
London Property Management Association ("LPMA")

Preamble: In the November 10, 2011 letter from Union Gas re: EB-2011-0210 - Union Gas Limited - 2013 Rebasing Application, Union stated that it was not proposing the next generation incentive regulation mechanism as part of this proceeding and that it would bring forward a separate application to establish the mechanism for setting rates for 2014 and beyond after the Board renders a decision on this application.

On April 27, 2012, Board staff filed a revised report entitle Assessment of Union Gas Ltd. and Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc. Incentive Regulation Plans dated April 2012 by Pacific Economics Group Research, LLC ("PEG").

On May 14, 2012, Union Gas filed reply evidence to the PEG report entitled Response to Pacific Economics Group's September 2011 Report (Revised April 2012) by Melvyn A. Fuss, Ph.D. Each interrogatory noted below refers to this reply evidence.

Question:

Please indicate which issue or issues approved by the Board that the reply evidence is to address.

Response:

Union filed the evidence of Mr. Melvyn A. Fuss dated May 14, 2012 in response to the Pacific Economics Group Research, LLC report titled "Assessment of Union Gas Ltd. And Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc. Incentive Regulation Plans" that was filed by Board Staff.

UNION GAS LIMITED

Answer to Interrogatory from
London Property Management Association ("LPMA")

Preamble: In the November 10, 2011 letter from Union Gas re: EB-2011-0210 - Union Gas Limited - 2013 Rebasing Application, Union stated that it was not proposing the next generation incentive regulation mechanism as part of this proceeding and that it would bring forward a separate application to establish the mechanism for setting rates for 2014 and beyond after the Board renders a decision on this application.

On April 27, 2012, Board staff filed a revised report entitle Assessment of Union Gas Ltd. and Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc. Incentive Regulation Plans dated April 2012 by Pacific Economics Group Research, LLC ("PEG").

On May 14, 2012, Union Gas filed reply evidence to the PEG report entitled Response to Pacific Economics Group's September 2011 Report (Revised April 2012) by Melvyn A. Fuss, Ph.D. Each interrogatory noted below refers to this reply evidence.

Question:

For each issue identified in Exhibit J.O-4-2-1, please provide the relative section(s) of the reply evidence that relate to the specific issue. Please provide a summary of the reply evidence related to each issue addressed.

Response:

Please see the response at Exhibit J.O-4-2-1.