At the University of Waterloo, Pooja was on the Dean's Honours List every year, and was awarded the St. Jerome's University Philosophy award for having the highest cumulative average in Philosophy courses.

Pooja has worked as a Philosophy Teaching Assistant in undergrad as well as a Research Assistant in Insurance Law while in law school. Pooja also participated in Pro Bono Students Canada and acted as the Vice President of the South Asian Law Students Association. During her time at Queen's, Pooja attended the Bader International Study Centre at Herstmonceux Castle in England, where she took classes in Public International Law. She also had additional international exposure by completing an internship in India for a non-profit organization in their Human Rights department.

Outside of the office, Pooja enjoys reading, music and travelling.
