ALS patient honoured

Trillium Health Partners' Ice Bucket Challenge at Mississauga Hospital took place in the ICU garden, a location chosen for its special meaning to staff and patients.

The creation of the ICU garden was inspired by a former Trillium Health Partners' patient who was diagnosed with ALS and treated for many months in the Intensive Care Unit. Passionate about gardening before succumbing to ALS, the patient greatly missed his garden at home during his hospital stay. Trillium Health Partners ICU staff and volunteers rallied to raise funds and worked with the patient's family to build the beautiful garden.

12 LE MÉTROPOLITAIN • SEMAINE DU 10 AU 16 SEPTEMBRE 2014

Cela vous dirait de faire de l'improvisation?

Xavier Lambert

Pensez-vous être créatif et spontané? Seriez-vous capable de prétendre être sur une plage, au zoo ou encore dans la salle d'attente d'un médecin sans aucune forme de préparation?

Se joindre à une scène totalement improvisée ou bien de parler du beau temps tout en faisant mine de faire la valsette ne vous déboussole pas outre mesure. Si c'est le cas, vous êtes alors peut-être fait pour l'improvisation.

Une quinzaine de personnes avaient répondu à la dernière invitation des Improposables, la ligue d'improvisation francophone de Toronto, pour participer un atelier destiné à ceux qui souhaitent se perfectionner ou essayer l'improvisation pour la première fois. Après les activités brise-glace d'usage, Barbara-Audrey Bergeron et George Raymond proposent de véritables situations d'improvisation aux participants, prodiguant tout au long de la soirée de nombreux conseils et encouragements. La séance se déroule dans une atmosphère de bonhomie et d'humour.

« C'est plus difficile que ça paraît. Il faut être patient et savoir accepter ses lacunes », déclare Jocelyne Desjarlais. Cette québécoise installée à Toronto depuis quatre ans était aussi venue pour rencontrer des francophones.

Quelques-uns des participants

Quant à Audrey Ferro, c'est en improvisatrice aguerrie qu'elle suit ces deux heures de formation. Elle abordera sa troisième année consécutives avec les Improposables en octobre prochain, mais elle estime néanmoins qu'elle a encore besoin d'apprendre. Comédienne de métier, Audrey trouve qu'être capable d'improviser s'avère fort utile lors d'auditions pour des publicités.

« Quelques-uns des participants de la ligue ont plus facile à gérer et afin de donner plus de temps de scène à chacun des membres. Le travail en équipe est primordial en improvisation théâtrale. Les Improposables recherchent donc des gens qui font montre d'un esprit positif, d'un bon sens et de l'écoute et d'une grande générosité.

Marjolette Pélissier n'avait pas fait de théâtre depuis qu'elle était au secondaire au Québec. Elle voulait cette fois voir si elle était capable de faire de l'improvisation, discipline qu'elle juge par ailleurs utile si l'on veut faire du théâtre.

« Assurez-vous d'avoir une intention précise avant d'entrer dans l'univers créé sur la scène. N'oubliez pas non plus de justifier votre départ quand vous décidez de la quitter », conseille George Raymond, un imprimeur de talent et membre des Improposables.

Barbara-Audrey Bergeron, codirectrice des Improposables, explique que ce genre d'atelier est une bonne occasion d'essayer l'improvisation avant de se présenter au camp de recrutement que la ligue francophone organisera à la mi-septembre. Chaque été, quelques membres s'en vont vers d'autres lieux. La troupe doit donc se renouveler en permanence. Cet automne, la sélection sera particulièrement rude pour gagner les quelques places disponibles. Les Improposables comptent en effet réduire leur effectif pour Certains des participants auront peut-être trouvé leur vocation ce soir-là. S'ils ont la chance d'être sélectionnés, ils se retrouveront alors au cours du mois d'octobre sur la scène du Supermarket, restaurant dans lequel les Improposables tiennent leurs soirées spectacles tous les mardis.
