Re: Canadian Renewable Energy Corporation (CREC) – Application for Authority to Expropriate for Wolfe Island Wind Plant transmission line, EB-2008-0050

Dear Ms. Walli:

On February 21, 2008 we filed an application on behalf of CREC for authority to expropriate land for the construction of certain transmission facilities for CREC's Wolfe Island Wind Plant. In that application CREC was seeking authority to expropriate from three landowners: Carylanne Martin, R. Paul Martin Construction Co. Ltd., and Globe Realty Holdings Ltd..

We are writing to inform you that CREC has entered into an agreement with Globe Realty Holdings Ltd., and as a result CREC no longer requires authority to expropriate from Globe Realty Holdings. Accordingly, CREC is hereby withdrawing that portion of its application as it applies to Globe Realty Holdings Inc.

CREC is, however, proceeding with its application as it relates to the two remaining landowners, Carylanne Martin and R. Paul Martin Construction Co. Ltd.

Yours truly,

Sharon Wong
