LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

On Dec. 20, I read for the first time in your newspaper advertisement, that a public hearing would be convened to discuss the Enbridge application to raise rates effective in less than two week, Jan.1,2015. This leaves little or no opportunity for the public to review. Further, the public are informed that the hearing may be oral, or in written form - at the Board's discretion. So, which is it?

I submit this process is an abuse of process.

This is an insult to the idea of public participation, or review.

The public should not allow this charade to continue.

Respectfully submitted, etc.
