

42nd Federal General Election underway

The 42nd federal general election will be held on Monday, October 19, 2015. Elections Canada offices in each of the 338 federal electoral districts will begin offering services to voters and candidates during the first week of August, with established hours that will be expanded as the demand for services increases starting in September. Canadian citizens at least 18 years old on election day are eligible to vote. Electors need to be registered to vote. Most electors are already registered. To check if they are registered, electors can visit elections.ca/register or call us at 1-800-463-6868. Electors have many voting options to choose from: they can vote by mail, in person at any Elections Canada office, at advance polls or at their polling station on election day. To vote, electors must show proof of their identity and address. The list of accepted pieces of identification is available online. "Elections Canada is committed to making the voting process as accessible as possible to all Canadian electors," says Chief Electoral Officer of Canada Marc Mayrand. "We are pleased to offer electors a range of voting options. We also accept many different pieces of identification to help ensure they have what they need to vote."

The Test

G'day, fellow Ignacians. Just a few lines to tell you about the test I had to write at work a few days ago. I studied all kinds of things; some relevant, some not. We are gong to be able offer IVs to our patients fairly soon and so we had to study acid - base balance, cardiac conditions, and whole host of other groovy things guaranteed to amuse and entertain for hours. In the words of Monty Python's "Gumby": "My brain hurts!" Solomon made a statement a little like that: Ecclesiastes 12:12 - And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. It is fascinating, however, to study the workings of the human body; atheists need not apply. How anyone could look at the way the heart is built and how it works and not come to the conclusion that it is DESIGNED IN A MOMENT OF TIME is past finding out. Anyhow, the day of the test came at last and I wrote it. I stood with the boss as he marked it.....and marked it....and marked it some more; then it happened: I passed! Alleluia and Jubile! There is another test in your future ladies and gentlemen; one that requires no stress, nor study. It is a test where you either get 100% or 0%. It is your name in the Lamb's Book of Life.....either it is there, or it ain't. Have you trusted Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour? Have you believed on Him and what He did for you at the cross? If not, why nor repent and ask Him to save you today? He died for your sins, was buried and rose again for you. 'Til next time, Folks. Steve Dunk
