Canadian David Hearn knows he can break through on the PGA Tour as long as he keeps trying. Hearn is having the best season of his pro career and has become a popular darknorse selection to win the PGA Championship, the final major of the season. A third-place finish at the RBC Canadian Open three weeks ago helped Hearn pass the $1.7-million US mark in earnings this season. More importantly, it's given him momentum headed in to the PGA Cham pionship.

"My confidence is definitely very high right now," Hearn said on Thursday. "To be in contention and to play the golf I did at the Canadian Open felt amazing. I just need to keep giving myself these chances, because I'm definitely playing with confidence."
