The Rockies didn't quit, however, and battled hard, shutting out Mitchell for three of the last four innings. Unfortunately, the damage was done and the St. Marys bats just couldn't overcome the deficit and Mitchell closed the tournament with an impressive 17-5 win.

Great effort by the Rockies; the coaches and players were very happy with the silver-medal finish after a less than impressive regular season.

Next up for the Rockies is the OBA championship tournament in Kingsville, Ontario, over Labour Day weekend, Sept. 4-7.

Good luck to the boys as their never quit attitude and hard work has, and will pay dividends in the coming weeks.
