Trail ride to raise money for fire victims

Mary Golem

A Chesley teenager is combining her two passions - horses and helping others - and has organized a Trail Riding Fundraiser for victims of the devastating fires in Owen Sound.

Jodie Stade, the 16-year-old daughter of Duane and Theresa Stade, has organized the ride for Sunday, September 13 at Inverhuron Park, near Tiverton.

Registration begins at 11 a.m. with lunch from 11:30-12:30 p.m. and the trail ride begins at 1 p.m. At the half-way point, at about 2:15 p.m., there will be a break and refreshments, with the ride expected to conclude at 3:30 p.m.

Admission is $25 per person, which includes lunch, snack and beverage.

"I feel really bad over what has happened in Owen Sound," the teen said, adding she was thinking of different ways she could help the victims. "I could just donate, but then I thought a fundraiser would be better and get more people involved, so I came up with this idea."

Word about the Trail Ride has spread quickly, Stade said, and already pledges and donations are coming in.

The Stade Motor Sports crew have agreed to provide a barbecued lunch and staff at her father's company, MEI in Chesley, have agreed to help with the event. Even employees' wives have volunteered to do baking for a bake sale, Stade said, adding "everyone just want to help those affected."
