Dawn Reference Price and North T-Service Application

1 INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY

Union Gas Limited (Union) is a natural gas storage, distribution and transmission company regulated by the Ontario Energy Board (OEB). It serves approximately 1.4 million customers in northern, eastern and southern Ontario. The distribution service area of Union extends throughout northern Ontario, from the Manitoba border to the North Bay/ Muskoka area, through southwestern Ontario from Windsor to Hamilton and across eastern Ontario, from Port Hope to Cornwall.

Union operates an integrated network of over 69,000 kilometres of natural gas pipelines. Union also owns storage and transmission assets that include 157 billion cubic feet (Bcf) of underground natural gas storage at the Dawn Hub, which is located in southwestern Ontario.

On July 15, 2015, Union filed an application with the OEB pursuant to section 36 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, for approval to change the reference price used to set commodity rates through the Quarterly Rate Adjustment Mechanism (QRAM) process. Union also requested a new optional North T-service Transportation from Dawn to provide customers with access to Dawn-based supply. Union specifically requested the following approvals:

- changes to the reference price used to set rates as determined in Union's quarterly rate filing to better reflect where Union will be purchasing gas supply in the future
- changes to Union North transportation, storage and commodity rates to reflect supply portfolio changes and modifications to the applicable rate schedules
- new transportation service option for Union North East T-Service customers to deliver gas at Dawn
- changes to the recovery of upstream transportation compressor fuel costs in rates for Union North sales service and bundled direct purchase customers
- cost allocation methodology and rate design changes for Union North gas storage and transportation rates
- establishing new deferral accounts and closing certain existing ones

On November 30, 2015, Union filed a Settlement Proposal reaching a settlement on all issues with the exception of the new optional North T-Service Transportation service. This decision deals with the unsettled issue.

The OEB will approve the new optional North T-Service Transportation from Dawn service as it has customer support and was established through customer consultation. The OEB however disagrees that the costs of any excess capacity should be borne by all eligible customers for that service regardless of whether they opt for the service or not. These findings are further discussed in section 3.

The proposed North T-service Transportation from Dawn service is optional and is designed for Union North T-Service customers in the Union North East Zone. The new service would provide firm transportation from Dawn to the customer's delivery area.

Union's North T-Service customers are currently responsible for arranging their own transportation for supply to arrive in their delivery area. In order to arrange supply to arrive at the delivery area, North T-Service customers currently rely on purchasing supply delivered to the customer at the delivery area or purchasing supply at a location upstream to the delivery area and arranging for the transportation of that supply to the required delivery area.

Union has noted that to-date about one-third of Union's North T-Service customers have committed to the service.

To provide the service, Union has reserved incremental transportation capacity on the Dawn to Parkway system and also entered the TransCanada open season for long-term firm transportation capacity starting in 2016 and 2017. Firm transportation capacity with TransCanada would be for a 15-year term.

Union has cited several benefits of the new service which include:

1. The service provides an option for Union North East Zone T-Service customers to contract for incremental firm transportation service, with renewal rights, from Dawn to their respective delivery areas at cost of service rates.
2. The service provides an easy to use, seamless transportation service that is independent of Union's sales service and bundled direct purchase transportation portfolio.

3. The service incorporates a means of managing the contract term risk for both Union and the customers associated with Union contracting for new transportation capacity with TransCanada that requires a 15-year commitment and the customer preference for a shorter term contract.

The North T-Service Transportation from Dawn service has a base service offering and a supplemental service offering. Eligible customers may elect either service offering or both. Union's proposal requires an initial contract term of one-year for the base service, with an obligation to automatically renew annually subject to conditions on how and when the customer's commitment could be reduced throughout the 15-year term.

Union has set a Firm Daily Quantity (FDQ) under the base service up to the greater of:

- a) Firm Contract Demand for distribution service; or
- b) Peak day in the previous 12 months.

The base service is capped at 3,000 GJ/day. Union has indicated that the limit of 3,000 GJ/day was set as it is sufficient to allow a majority of the eligible customers to contract and be able to meet 100% of their Firm Contract Demand and the quantity minimizes the potential impact that any one customer might have on the proposed Union Base Service North T-Service TransCanada Capacity deferral account.

2 THE PROCESS

As indicated above, Union filed its application on July 15, 2015. The list of intervenors who participated in the proceeding is provided in Schedule A.

In Procedural Order No. 1 dated September 23, 2015, the OEB scheduled a three-day Settlement Conference starting on November 9, 2015, with the objective of reaching a settlement among the parties on the issues. Union filed a Settlement Proposal on November 30, 2015, reaching a settlement on all issues with the exception of the new optional North T-Service Transportation service.

By Decision and Procedural Order No. 2 dated January 7, 2016, the OEB accepted the Settlement Proposal and scheduled a written submission process for the unsettled issue dealing with the North T-Service Transportation service.

OEB Staff, the Association of Power Producers of Ontario (APPrO), the Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters (CME) and the Industrial Gas Users Association (IGUA) filed submissions.

3 FINDINGS

The issue before the OEB is the approval of Union's proposed optional North T-service Transportation from Dawn service to provide customers with access to Dawn-based supply. As indicated earlier, the OEB approves the proposed North T-Service Transportation Service as it has customer support and was established through customer consultation.

As part of the approval of the new service, Union requested approval to establish a Base Service North T-Service TransCanada Capacity deferral account (North T-Service deferral account) to capture the difference between the costs of excess TransCanada transportation capacity and the revenues obtained by re-marketing that excess capacity. Union has noted that excess capacity could arise as a result of a reduction in customer's requirements and a request to reduce the quantity of the base service at contract renewal. Union proposed that costs of any unsold excess transportation capacity be recovered from all eligible customers of the new service.

Union proposed that the balances in the deferral account be cleared annually to all firm T-Service customers in the Union North East Zone (eligible customers for the service), using an allocation approach based on the customers' eligible quantity for base service. Union capped the individual capacity allocation in the deferral account to the greater of the firm contract demand or peak day demand and capped to a maximum of 3,000 GJ/day which is the maximum FDQ eligible for base service.

APPrO, IGUA, CME and OEB staff made submissions on this issue. The parties supported the introduction of the new service but opposed Union's proposed disposition methodology for the North T-Service deferral account balances. Parties submitted that any net unrecovered or unmitigated costs should be solely collected from customers who have subscribed for the service and not from all eligible customers for this new service.

APPrO noted that Union's proposal was not supported by cost causation principles and was discriminatory, unjust and punitive towards gas fired generators and other large volume customers. IGUA submitted that in a competitive market, a product or service either bears its own cost or is ultimately discontinued, and any resulting losses are at the risk of the entity offering the product or service. IGUA noted that cross-subsidy from one group of customers to another is not sustainable and the OEB should not allow the cross-subsidy.

The OEB agrees with the position of the intervenors that allocating costs to all eligible customers would be unfair and inconsistent with the principles of cost causation.

Union has argued that all customers in the Union North East Zone will benefit from the proposed service, as it would help create a liquid secondary market. Union has submitted that incremental firm transportation to the delivery area would make secondary market options less expensive and this would benefit all customers including those that did not subscribe to the service. The OEB is not convinced that all customers who do not subscribe to the service would necessarily benefit from the increase in transportation capacity to the Union North Zone through lower costs for secondary market services. The OEB considers Union's contention to be too speculative in nature to form the basis for firm cost allocation determinations.

Union also argued that allocating the balances to only those customers that subscribe for the service would be inconsistent with class ratemaking as the service is available to all customers. The OEB does not accept this argument. The adherence to class ratemaking principles is negated by the design of the service offering itself. The service has an eligibility criteria that clearly makes the service more attractive to a particular subset of customers and therefore not uniformly applicable along rate class parameters.

The OEB has therefore determined that any balances in the North T-Service deferral account be recovered from customers that have subscribed for the proposed service. Union is directed to communicate the decision of the OEB to all customers who have expressed interest in the new North T-service Transportation from Dawn service and to those who have already committed to the new service. The OEB further directs Union to provide to all customers who have subscribed for the service the right to opt out of the proposed service at no cost to the customer unless otherwise stipulated in their contract.

Charge 2 applies for all additional gas volumes delivered in the billing month.

HEAT CONTENT ADJUSTMENT

The gas supply commodity charges hereunder will be adjusted upwards or downwards as described below if the average total heating value of the gas per cubic metre (m³) determined in accordance with Union's Terms and Conditions in any month falls above or below 37.89 MJ per m³, respectively.

2. Annual Firm Injection Rights are equal to 100% of their respective Annual Firm Withdrawal Rights. Injection Rights in excess of the Annual Firm Injection Rights will be charged at the Incremental Firm Injection Right.
3. Annual Firm Storage Space

The maximum storage space available to a customer at the rates specified herein is determined by one of the following storage allocation methodologies:

3.1 Aggregate Excess

Aggregate excess is the difference between a customer's gas consumption in the 151-day winter period and consumption during the balance of the year. This calculation will be done using two years of historical data (with 25% weighting for each year) and one year of forecast data (with 50% weighting). If a customer is new, or an existing customer is undergoing a significant change in operations, the allocation will be based on forecast consumption only, as negotiated between Union and the customer. Once sufficient historical information is available for the customer, the standard calculation will be done. At each contract renewal, the aggregate excess calculation will be performed to set the new space allocation.

3.2 Obligated daily contract quantity multiple of 15

Obligated daily contract quantity is the firm daily quantity of gas which the customer must deliver to Union. The 15 x obligated daily contract quantity calculation will be done using the daily contract quantity for the upcoming contract year. At each contract renewal, the 15 x obligated daily contract quantity calculation will be performed to set the new space allocation.

Customers may contract for less than their maximum entitlement of firm storage space.

4. Annual Injection/Withdrawal Right

The maximum level of deliverability available to a customer at the rates specified herein is determined by one of the following methodologies:

4.1 The greater of obligated daily contract quantity or firm daily contract demand less obligated daily contract quantity.

Customers may contract for less than their maximum entitlement of deliverability. A customer may contract up to this maximum entitlement with a combination of firm and interruptible deliverability as specified in Section (C) Storage Service.

5. Additional storage space or deliverability, in excess of the allocated entitlements per Notes 3 and 4, may be available at market prices.

6. Storage Space and Withdrawal Rights are not assignable to any other party without the prior written consent of Union.

7. Deliverability Inventory being defined as 20% of annual storage space.

8. Short Term Storage / Balancing Service is:

OVERRUN SERVICE:

1. Annual Storage Space

Authorized

Authorized Overrun is provided as Storage/Balancing Service. It is payable on all quantities on any Day in excess of the customer's contracted Maximum Storage Space. Overrun will be authorized by Union at its sole discretion. Storage Space Overrun equal to the customer's firm deliveries from TCPL: less the customer's Firm Daily Contract Demand, all multiplied by the Days of Interruption called during the period of November 1 to March 31, will be automatically authorized until the following July 1.

Unauthorized

If in any month, the customer has gas in storage in excess of the contracted Maximum Storage Space, and which has not been authorized by Union or provided for under a short term supplemental storage service, such an event will constitute an occurrence of Unauthorized Overrun. The Unauthorized Overrun rate will be $6.000 per GJ applied to the greatest excess for each occurrence.

If on any Day the gas storage balance for the account of the customer is less than zero, the Unauthorized Overrun charge will apply for each GJ of gas below a zero inventory level and this amount of gas shall be deemed not to have been withdrawn from storage. The gas shall be deemed to have been sold to the customer at the highest spot price at Dawn in the month of occurrence and the month following occurrence as identified in the Canadian Gas Price Reporter and shall not be less than Union's approved weighted average cost of gas. If the customer has contracted to provide its own deliverability inventory, the zero inventory level shall be deemed to mean twenty percent (20%) of the Annual Firm Storage Space.

2. Injection, Withdrawals and Transportation

Authorized

The following Overrun rates are applied to any quantities transported, injected or withdrawn in excess of 103% of the Contract parameters. Overrun will be authorized by Union at its sole discretion.

Automatic authorization of Injection Overrun will be given during all Days a customer has been interrupted.

1. Demand charges for Annual Services are paid monthly during the term of the contract for not less than one year unless Union, in its sole discretion, accepts a term of less than one year. Demand charges apply whether Union or the customer provides the fuel.
2. Annual Firm Injection Rights are equal to 100% of their respective Annual Firm Withdrawal Rights. Injection Rights in excess of the Annual Firm Injection Rights will be charged at the Incremental Firm Injection Right.
3. Annual Firm Storage Space

The maximum storage space available to a customer at the rates specified herein is determined by one of the following storage allocation methodologies:

3.1 Aggregate Excess

Aggregate excess is the difference between a customer's gas consumption in the 151-day winter period and consumption during the balance of the year. This calculation will be done using two years of historical data (with 25% weighting for each year) and one year of forecast data (with 50% weighting). If a customer is new, or an existing customer is undergoing a significant change in operations, the allocation will be based on forecast consumption only, as negotiated between Union and the customer. Once sufficient historical information is available for the customer, the standard calculation will be done. At each contract renewal, the aggregate excess calculation will be performed to set the new space allocation.

3.2 Obligated daily contract quantity multiple of 15

Obligated daily contract quantity is the firm daily quantity of gas which the customer must deliver to Union. The 15 x obligated daily contract quantity calculation will be done using the daily contract quantity for the upcoming contract year. At each contract renewal, the 15 x obligated daily contract quantity calculation will be performed to set the new space allocation.

3.3 For new, large (daily firm transportation demand requirements in excess of 1,200,000 m³/day) gas fired power generation customers, storage space is determined by peak hourly consumption x 24 x 4 days. Should the customer elect firm deliverability less than their maximum entitlement (see Note 4.2), the maximum storage space available at the rates specified herein is 10 x firm storage deliverability contracted, not to exceed peak hourly consumption x 24 x 4 days.

Customers may contract for less than their maximum entitlement of firm storage space.

4. Annual Injection/Withdrawal Right

The maximum level of deliverability available to a customer at the rates specified herein is determined by one of the following methodologies:

4.1 The greater of obligated daily contract quantity or firm daily contract demand less obligated daily contract quantity.

4.2 For new, large (daily firm transportation demand requirements in excess of 1,200,000 m³/day) gas fired power generation customers, the maximum entitlement of firm storage deliverability is 24 times the customer's peak hourly consumption, with 1.2% firm deliverability available at the rates specified herein.

Customers may contract for less than their maximum entitlement of deliverability. A customer may contract up to this maximum entitlement with a combination of firm and interruptible deliverability as specified in Section (C) Storage Service.

5. Additional storage space or deliverability, in excess of the allocated entitlements per Notes 3 and 4, may be available at market prices.

6. Storage Space and Withdrawal Rights are not assignable to any other party without the prior written consent of Union.

7. Deliverability Inventory being defined as 20% of annual storage space.

8. Short Term Storage / Balancing Service is:

- i) a combined space and interruptible deliverability service for short-term or off-peak storage in Union's storage facilities, or
- ii) short-term firm deliverability, or
- iii) a component of an operational balancing service offered.

In negotiating the rate to be charged for service, the matters that are to be considered include:

- i) The minimum amount of storage service to which a customer is willing to commit,
- ii) Whether the customer is contracting for firm or interruptible service during Union's peak or non-peak periods,
- iii) Utilization of facilities, and
- iv) Competition

c) Interruptible Transportation Commodity Paid on all interruptible quantities redelivered to the customer's Point(s) of Consumption Maximum		4.2897 ¢	0.279%	4.2355 ¢

Notes:

1. All demand charges are paid monthly during the term of the contract for not less than one year unless Union, at its sole discretion, accepts a term of less than one year. Demand charges apply whether Union or the customer provides the fuel.
2. Effective January 1, 2007, new customers and existing customers with incremental daily firm demand requirements in excess of 1,200,000 m³/day and who are directly connected to i) the Dawn-Trafalgar transmission system in close proximity to Parkway or ii) a third party pipeline, have the option to pay for service using a Billing Contract Demand. The Billing Contract Demand shall be determined by Union such that the annual revenues over the term of the contract will recover the invested capital, return on capital and operating and maintenance costs associated with the dedicated service in accordance with Union's system expansion policy. The firm transportation demand charge will be applied to the Billing Contract Demand. For customers choosing the Billing Contract Demand option, the authorized transportation overrun rate will apply to all volumes in excess of the Billing Contract Demand but less than the daily firm demand requirement.
3. In negotiating the rate to be charged for the transportation of gas under Interruptible Transportation, the matters that are to be considered include:
 - a) The amount of the interruptible transportation for which customer is willing to contract,
 - b) The anticipated load factor for the interruptible transportation quantities,
 - c) Interruptible or curtailment provisions, and
 - d) Competition.
4. In each contract year, the customer shall pay for a Minimum Interruptible Transportation Activity level as specified in the Contract. Overrun activity will not contribute to the minimum activity level.
5. Transportation fuel ratios do not apply to customers served from dedicated facilities directly connected to third party transmission systems with custody transfer metering at the interconnect.

6. Firm transportation fuel ratio does not apply to new customers or existing customers with incremental daily firm demand requirements in excess of 1,200,000 m³/day that contract for M12 Dawn to Parkway transportation service equivalent to 100% of their daily firm demand requirement. If a customer with a daily firm demand requirement in excess of 1,200,000 m³/day contracts for M12 Dawn to Parkway transportation service at less than 100% of their firm daily demand requirement, the firm transportation fuel ratio will be applicable to daily volumes not transported under the M12 transportation contract.
7. Either Union or a customer, or potential customer, may apply to the Ontario Energy Board to fix rates and other charges different from the rates and other charges specified herein if the changed rates and other charges are considered by either party to be necessary, desirable and in the public interest.
