Inadvertent Disclosure of Claimed Confidential Information

This letter advises that this afternoon, OPG has discovered that it has inadvertently disclosed information which is the subject of a claim for confidential protection which is before the OEB and pending a ruling.

The information is contained in the Risk Register that OPG filed at L-4.3-1 Staff-73, Attachment 7 in response to an OEB staff interrogatory.

So as not to prejudice persons who desire the certain information to be protected as confidential pending the OEB's decision on confidentiality submissions made pursuant to Procedural Order No. 1, OPG respectfully requests that Attachment 7 be removed from the OEB website. OPG further respectfully requests that any persons in possession of Attachment 7 who have not already signed and delivered the OEB's form of Declaration and Undertaking in this proceeding not review the document and also permanently delete it from their records.

OPG undertakes to file a non-confidential version of the subject document as soon as possible.

Yours truly,
