Online Verification Form Electricity Contract Entered into In Person: Non-Residential Consumers

Instructions for using this form:

- 1. This form must only be used for non-residential consumers that have entered into a contract for electricity in person.
- 2. In this form, the term "energy retailer" is used to refer to the electricity retailer.
- 3. The online verification process must be automatically terminated if Ontario Regulation 389/10 (General) made under the Energy Consumer Protection Act, 2010 (the ECPA Regulation) or this form so requires. Among other things, the online verification process must be terminated if at any time it appears that verification is taking place on a date that is outside the window allowed by the ECPA Regulation. Where the online verification process must be terminated by reason of the above, a termination message must automatically be displayed on the consumer's device advising the consumer in plain language the reason why that is the case. The message cannot contain any statements regarding any benefit to the consumer that may be lost as a result of the termination of the online verification process, but must indicate in neutral terms that the contract will become invalid if it is not verified within the time allowed by the ECPA Regulation and that the consumer's online verification session.
- 4. The online verification process must be automatically terminated if the consumer clicks any of the boxes in the form that are presented in red font.
- 5. Additional instructions are embedded in the form, in italics.

[If the consumer clicks " <here>", the following text must be displayed on the consumer's device: Most electricity generating companies get a guaranteed price for the electricity that they produce. The Global Adjustment is the difference between that guaranteed price and the money the generators earn in the wholesale marketplace. The Global Adjustment also covers the costs of some conservation programs. The amount of the Global Adjustment can change every month. Although it can be a credit, the Global Adjustment has been a charge almost all the time since 2006. Under the law all electricity consumers have to pay a share of the Global Adjustment. The electricity prices charged by the electricity utility that serves the business already include an estimate of the Global Adjustment. If you confirm that you want to continue with the contract for electricity, the business will have to pay its share of the Global Adjustment on top of the contract price.]</here>

Section 8: Confirming Whether you Want to Continue with the Con	tract
Not yet, I need more time. I understand that I can come back and finish this online contract verification session later which will remain available to me until [insert date].
□ I Need More Time
No, I don't want the contract. I understand that if I check the box below, electricity from [insert energy retailer name] will become invalid. The built electricity service. We will not have to pay any cancellation fees.

□ I Have Changed My Mind About the Contract

Yes, I want the contract. I understand that if I check the box below, I am agreeing to buy electricity for the business from [insert energy retailer name] at the price and for the length of time set out in Section 6.

□ I Confirm that I want to Continue with the Contract

To finish this online contract verification session and confirm your contract, please read about your right to cancel the contract below.

I understand that I can cancel the contract up to 30 days after the business receives the second bill that shows the contract price. I understand that I have to pay that bill, but we won't have to pay any cancellation fees. If I cancel after that, we may have to pay a cancellation fee.

□ I have read about my right to cancel the contract after receiving our second bill.

[The consumer cannot be allowed to check this box unless the consumer has (i) provided a response in respect of each question or statement in sections 1 to 7; and (ii) the consumer has checked the "I Confirm that I want to Continue with the Contract..." box in section 8. If the consumer attempts to check this box without having done both (i) and (ii), an automatic message must be displayed on the consumer's device inviting the consumer to complete the missing information. If the consumer has done both (i) and (ii) and is able to and does check this box, the following must then be displayed on the consumer's device: Your contract to buy electricity from [insert energy retailer name] has been confirmed. Please contact [insert name of, and telephone number for, the energy retailer] if you have any questions about your contract or about when electricity will start to be supplied under the contract.]
