Your way to make money is always one sided: bill the customer more. How about reviewing upper management salaries? They are despicable! We don't have a choice of how we get our electricity so We have to pay Hydro whatever they bill us. it's not fair. The current Hydro One CEO earns a $850,000 base salary that could rise to a maximum of $4 million with bonuses. Bonuses? What?? What a cash cow this business is. in 2014 there were over 3800 employees earning over $100k which that information is no longer disclosed. Geez, i wonder why? Com'on guys, where is there justice??
