Dear Premier, Is there any integrity left in you and your liberal colleagues?

You promised a total 25% increase, but were not honest enough to state that we will increase distribution costs. I guess one lie leads to another lie, until you and your government have no understanding of truth and honesty.

Please don't hurt us any more than we already are with these proposed increases. It does prove one thing, that a sinner is always a sinner, and you have sinned against the people of Ontario without conscience or remorse.

James Comte
