I note that very little mention was made regarding the many, many comments from the floor at the meeting I attended, which was in Sudbury.

Mr. Fedeli was the only registered speaker - partly, I believe, because as others have said, there was insufficient notice of the meeting - but he was rebutted immediately, and other attendees made comments for the next hour-plus. Lumping those together as "themes" is both disrespectful and an avoidance of major concerns among hydro customers.
