Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: 2017 and 2018 Transmission Revenue Requirements and Charge Determinants, EB-2016-0160

Energy Probe Research Foundation (“Energy Probe”) will miss the cost claim deadline for the EB-2016-0160 hearing. The reason for this is due to our case manager (David Macintosh) having been in hospital since late August. He remains in hospital at the moment and it has caused some confusion in regards to filings for OEB proceedings over which he was case manager. I am, unfortunately, out of town until Saturday, but will send the cost claim by Sunday morning.

Energy Probe sincerely apologizes for the confusion, but this decision regarding cost claims appears to have been completely missed by the organization for the above reason, and previous travel arrangements have me out of the country until this weekend. Apart from this mix-up, we have adhered to all previous deadlines in this proceeding.

Yours truly,
