RE: UNION GAS LIMITED AND ENBRIDGE GAS DISTRIBUTION INC.
MERGER APPLICATION, EB-2017-0306

Dear Ms. Walli:

Although Six Nations Natural Gas (SNNG) has not requested time during cross-examination, we have been reviewing evidence, monitoring the Technical Conference and hearing via web broadcast and attending the hearing in person as well. In this regard, SNNG reserves the right to submit written argument if we determine there is a need.

In addition, SNNG is aware that we have been identified by Union Gas Limited and Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc. as a competitor for the purpose of restricting access to confidential strategic planning documents. SNNG has worked in good faith for years as partners with Union Gas Limited as evidenced by our partnership being selected as the winner of the second annual Ontario Aboriginal Partnerships Recognition Award in November 2001. SNNG does not accept the label of "competitor" under any realistic meaning of the word, particularly since SNNG is not able to compete economically with Union Gas Limited, Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc., Amalco or their parent, Enbridge Inc.

Yours truly,
