We just signed up to gas off oil(because of all the little increases) now it keeps going in the same direction,don't get me wrong just yet, it is so far a lot cheaper than oil even if we have to turn it up higher(oil is a lot hotter than gas) I just wish wages would go up every time something else goes up.What I would really like to see is remove monthly "customer charge" then every little increase would not be so noticed.reward customers instead of the other way around-Thanks for letting me vent this morning.....
