So I hit the NAIL right on the head. When Enbridge amalgamated with Union Gas I said to my Wife "watch gas prices escalate now", and guess what. I was with Enbridge once before for an extended period until there prices became stupidly expensive. I went back to Union Gas who were more reasonable. Enbridge rose prices on Jan.01, now they want more on April 01. Where is this going to end? They are greedy as they were before. Please Help and put an end to this nonsense. This is becoming out of control. Thank-you for your time.
