Dear Ms. Walli:

RE: Jupiter Energy Advisors Inc. and the advisory businesses of Aegent Energy Advisors Inc. and E2 Energy Inc.

We wish to advise the Ontario Energy Board that the principals of Aegent Energy Advisors Inc. (Aegent) and E2 Energy Inc. (E2) have together formed Jupiter Energy Advisors Inc. (Jupiter), and effective March 14, 2019, Aegent and E2 have transferred to Jupiter their assets related to the delivery of advisory and support services in energy procurement. As Jupiter, the focus of the company will continue to be the provision of independent and objective advice to assist clients to reduce costs, manage risk, and resolve the complexity of the energy marketplace.

Aegent and E2 each hold an Electricity Retailer Licence - Agent Only, Large Volume Consumers Only. Aegent's licence number is ER-2016-0287 and E2's is ER-2016-0319, both valid until December 20, 2021. Jupiter Energy Advisors will be submitting a licence application for the merged company shortly.

Aegent and E2 will seek the agreement of their clients to assign existing energy advisory service contracts to Jupiter, and Jupiter will assume the obligations of Aegent and E2 under those contracts. However, where the scope of work involves the obligation to act as agent for a client in the purchase or sale of electricity, the assignment of the contract is expressly conditioned on Jupiter first obtaining the necessary Electricity Retailer Licence.
