Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: Alectra Utilities Corporation (“Alectra Utilities”) – Submission on Confidentiality Incentive Regulation Mechanism (“IRM”) Application for 2020 Electricity Distribution Rates and Charges (OEB File No. EB-2019-0018)

On May 28, 2019, Alectra Utilities Corporation (“Alectra Utilities”) filed an electricity distribution rate application with the Ontario Energy Board (“OEB” or “Board”) for approval of proposed rates and other charges in the Brampton, Enersource, Guelph, Horizon Utilities and PowerStream Rate Zones effective January 1, 2020. Included in the Application were three requests for confidential treatment of materials, pursuant to the OEB’s Practice Direction on Confidential Filings (the “Practice Direction”), dated October 28, 2016.

The requests for confidential treatment were for selected portions of evidence in the following sections of the Application:

1. Exhibit 4 Distribution System Plan, Tab 1, Schedule 1, Appendix A13, page 20, 23, 33, 39 and 46 (Stations Capacity Investment Summary)
2. Exhibit 4 Distribution System Plan, Tab 1, Schedule 1, Appendix B, page 63, 65, 82-83 and 202-203 (Business Cases)
3. Exhibit 4 Distribution System Plan, Tab 1, Schedule 1, Appendix L (Alectra Value Framework Implementation Document, referred to as the Report)

The OEB issued Procedural Order (“PO”) #1 on July 9, 2019. OEB staff filed a submission regarding Alectra Utilities’ confidentiality request on July 10, 2019. In its submission, OEB staff supported the confidential treatment of all of the items identified above, for which confidential treatment was sought. No other parties made submissions on the requests for confidential treatment.
