Attn: Christine Long, Registrar & Board Secretary

Dear Ms. Long:

Re: EB-2018-0165 –Toronto Hydro Electric-System Limited 2020-2024 – Cost Claim

We are counsel to the School Energy Coalition ("SEC"). Enclosed, please find SEC's cost claim on the Board's form with detailed dockets.

Please note that we have included time in the 'Other Conference – Preparation' category for time docketed for items that do not fall within the other categories (i.e. preparing the Notice of Intervention, discussion and reporting to our client, various procedural issues and consideration of Procedural Orders, matters related to confidentiality, reviewing the Board's decision, etc.). We have also included under the 'Other Conference – Attendance' category for matters related to our review, consideration, and preparation of submissions on the Draft Rate Order.

This was a lengthy and complex proceeding, which included detailed pre-filed evidence, intervenor evidence, an evidence update, a 3 day technical conference, an 11 day oral hearing, and the need for a detailed final argument. SEC participated in all aspects of the proceeding and took an interest in all material components of the application.

SEC also took the lead amongst the intervenors in numerous aspects of the application, including, the proposed $2.8Bn capital plan which was the most significant driver of the proposed rate increase.

Due to the size and complexity of the proceeding, SEC split its activity between two counsels with each having separate areas of responsibilities. There was no material overlap, and SEC believes that this organization led a high level of efficiency.

SEC can report that the final cost claim is approximately 20% less than the forecast it had provided to Toronto Hydro at the end of the oral hearing, which it used as part of its updated regulatory costs forecast and request included in Undertaking J1.1.

SEC submits that its participation in this proceeding was thorough and valuable, and was designed to maximize its assistance to the Board. SEC therefore requests reimbursement of its reasonably incurred costs as set forth in the attached cost claim.

Yours very truly,
Shepherd Rubenstein P.C.
