Good afternoon, Mr. Henderson.

I received the phone message you left me. Yes, you are correct -- you have an opportunity to file a "submission" (what you referred to as a rebuttal) before 4:45 pm on Monday July 13, 2020. Essentially, your submission is a letter that you file with the OEB in which you state your opinions on the issues you are most concerned about. You are not supposed to introduce any new evidence in your submission, but, as much as possible, you should reference the evidence that is currently on the record as proof that your opinions are correct.

Mr. Arnold, the Ministry of Natural Resources and Forestry, and OEB staff may also file their submissions before 4:45 pm on Monday.

Thanks.
