RE: Cancellation of The Bay Area Health Trust Electricity Generation License

The Bay Area Health Trust was issued Electricity Generation License No. EG-2003-0260 (the "BAHT License") on January 2, 2004, as owner and operator of the following facilities:

- The McMaster University Medical Centre Generation Facility;
- The Hamilton General Hospital Generation Facility;
- The Juravinski Hospital Generation Facility (formerly known as Henderson General Hospital Generation Facility); and

The Chedoke Hospital Generation Facility was closed on June 30, 2021. On June 30, 2021, The Bay Area Health Trust sold and transferred to Hamilton Health Sciences Corporation, the beneficiary of The Bay Area Health Trust, all of the assets relating to The McMaster University Medical Centre Generation Facility, The Hamilton General Hospital Generation Facility and The Juravinski Hospital Generation Facility (collectively, the "Transferred Facilities").

Hamilton Health Sciences Corporation has applied to the Ontario Energy Board for an Electricity Generation License in respect of the Transferred Facilities (the "HHSC License"). We hereby request that, effective upon the issuance of the HHSC License, the Ontario Energy Board cancel the BAHT License.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned by telephone at 905-521-2248 ext 1004 or by email at mcrackenp@baht.ca should you have any questions or concerns.

Yours truly,

The Bay Area Health Trust
