Re: Updating the Conservation and Demand Management (“CDM”) Guidelines for Electricity Distributors – EB-2021-0106

On August 5, 2021, the Ontario Energy Board (“OEB”) released an OEB Staff Discussion Paper and accompanying letter setting out proposed updates to the CDM Guidelines for electricity distributors. In its letter, the OEB invited stakeholders interested in participating in this matter to indicate their intention to do so by filing a letter with the OEB.

By way of this letter, Alectra indicates its intent to participate in the proceeding, whether as an individual entity, or jointly through the Coalition of Large Distributors, as the case may be.
