Although we were cost-eligible, and we reviewed the materials, we determined that we would not make submissions, so we will not be claiming costs.

Just a reminder that cost claims for the EB-2019-0207 proceeding must be submitted in the OEB's new online system by the end of the day February 25. After February 25, the system closes and you will then need to formally request an extension with the Registrar's office. If you are not filing a cost claim, kindly let me know. If you need any technical assistance, Leslie Summerfield and I can assist.

Thanks,
Christiane
