On June 2, 2022, the OEB issued Procedural Order No. 6 (PO 6), in which it stated:

In a typical proceeding, cost claims would be filed with the OEB at the conclusion of the proceeding. In the current case, given that the extended timeline for the proceeding could take the parties well into 2023, the OEB will permit cost eligible intervenors to file interim cost claims for the period through to the end of the Technical Conference established by PO 5.<sup>1</sup>

The OEB set June 16, 2022 as the deadline for filing interim cost claims. Since PO 6 was issued, the OEB has been contacted by two intervenor representatives seeking confirmation that they are not required to file interim cost claims, and that they may make their cost claims in the normal course, at the end of the proceeding.

The OEB made the accommodation for interim cost claims to assist cost eligible intervenors in mitigating a lengthy wait for a final cost award given the timeline for this proceeding. The OEB confirms that it is not requiring cost eligible intervenors to file interim cost claims. They are welcome to wait until the end of the proceeding and file their complete cost claims at that time.

Yours truly,

Nancy Marconi
Registrar
