Considering the enormous amount of profit Enbridge makes (<https://www.macrotrends.net/stocks/charts/ENB/enbridge-inc/gross-profit#:~:text=Enbridge%20Inc%20gross%20profit%20for%20the%20twelve%20months%20ending%20September.increase%20year%2Dover%2Dyear>), and the fact that inflation is very high, and wages are increasing much below the rate of inflation, it's outrageous to request for an increase in the rates! More and more families in Ontario cannot afford rent and basic food, and are being forced to use the Foodbank, borrow from parents to be able to pay for rent or end up on the street. This is pure disregard for human life (definition: a willingness to act, not because he or she means to cause grievous harm, but because he or she simply does not care whether or not grievous harm will result!) How can we fall this LOW
