2020 to January 2021
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Senior Project Engineer
SEA, Ltd.

2015 to 2019
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Project Engineer
SEA, Ltd.

2003 to 2015
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Investigates electrical accidents and determines causation in liability, property, and personal injury claims. Specialized in the following areas: performs investigations relating to electrical design and construction defects; structural and marine fire analysis; electric shock and electrocution; arc flash and electrical worker accidents, including arc flash assessments and utility line worker accidents; lightning damage analysis and validity; illumination (lighting) studies, including slip/trip-and-fall evaluations; identifies product failures and deficiencies, including household appliances, commercial equipment, and industrial machinery; evaluates product adherence to mandatory standards and industry guidelines; proper handling of evidence and chain-of-custody preservation; field and laboratory testing, including nondestructive techniques and product reliability.

Senior Power Quality Business Manager

1998 to 2003

Florida Power & Light

Juno Beach, Florida

Responsible for developing products and services for commercial and industrial customers that met their needs for improved power quality and reliability to their operations and facilities. Developed a power monitoring service, with a budget of over $4 million.

Developed power quality related services to help customers solve power quality problems through mitigation equipment, as well as tools and techniques to desensitize electronic equipment from power quality disturbances. Supported six Power Quality Engineers around the state for equipment, job and safety training, Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), and consulting needs with power quality issues affecting customers. Coordinated and taught FPL's Power Quality Seminar to Professional Engineers, Electrical Contractors, and Electricians around the state and obtained Professional Engineering Continuation Education approval through the Florida Board of Professional Engineers.

Power Quality Engineer

1988 to 1998

Florida Power & Light

Juno Beach, Florida

Responsible for developing, planning, and coordinating FPL's Power Quality Program. Performed analysis at over 1,000 residential/commercial/industrial customers' facilities to solve power quality problems affecting customers' equipment and operations by responding to complaints and coordinating remedies. Analysis included site inspection of wiring and grounding installations, monitoring and data analysis, and written reports presenting recommendations to improve performance of systems.

Analyzed, inspected, and monitored high- and low-voltage electrical power equipment (e.g., switchgear, transfer switches, power lines, transformers) to determine the cause of failures or malfunctions in the operation. Analyzed facilities and equipment for damage due to lightning. Determined path of entry and made recommendations for protection to minimize exposure to future events. Investigated grounding and wiring for faults and malfunctions that caused electrical shock or electrocution. Testified as expert witness for Regulatory Affairs before the Florida Public Service Commission. Nationally recognized expert in the power quality field and has published and presented numerous papers. Assisted in the development of the Power Quality Group Safety Program. Qualified as Extendo Stick operator for storm restoration team. Selected to be trained for lineman skills.

Construction Service Engineer

1987 to 1988

Florida Power & Light

Delray Beach, Florida

Responsible for the engineering design and layout and project management of FPL's electrical system for new and existing construction. This included large underground subdivisions, commercial and industrial projects, street lighting, road widening, metering. Coordination with developers, residential, commercial and industrial customers, electrical engineers, electrical contractors, builders, and building officials. Training in areas of project management and design, load and voltage calculation, overhead and underground construction, including cable splicing, transformer installation, pole climbing, pole setting, pole framing, primary and secondary conductor installation, and safety/PPE training. Worked with overhead and underground lineman/cable splicer crews as project manager to deal with field issues and design changes during construction.

Engineering Support

1986

Florida Power & Light

Delray Beach, Florida

Responsible for engineering and design of projects including, roadway lighting, recloser and capacitor bank installations, traffic signalization powering, overhead and underground relocations for road widening projects.

Marketing

1985

Florida Power & Light

West Palm Beach, Florida

Responsible for conducting home and business energy surveys to identify area of energy savings to meet FPL's energy conservation goals. These areas included air-conditioning /heating assessments, window treatments, insulation levels, high efficient appliances, and building envelope analysis.

Engineering Planning-

1985

Florida Power & Light

West Palm Beach, Florida

Responsible for conducting analysis of street lighting and designing roadway lighting projects to meet county and state roadway lighting requirements. Conducted fault current analysis of recloser fault current protection. Designed projects to add/move recloser devices to coordinate fault current levels on FPL's distribution system. Conducted load and growth analysis of FPL's distribution system in the West Palm Beach area for substation and system load planning and growth forecasting.

Storm Patrolman/Area Coordinator

1983 to 2003

Florida Power & Light

Various Locations

Participated in yearly storm patrol duties and training exercises. Coordinated engineers to patrol feeders after storms for storm season assignments. Participated in dry run exercises to simulate storm damage, assessment and restoration. Participated in regular Safety/PPE training, worked directly with FPL lineman crews, contractors and foreign crews on overhead line restoration and repairs. Assigned to storm areas around Florida during storm events.
