Good morning,

Very briefly - in light of Enbridge increasing revenues and increasing profits (as highlighted in ongoing news reports), I believe any rate increases at this time are a really bad idea.

My wife and I are approaching retirement and any increasing costs are a concern. Being warm and comfortable in your home (particularly winter in Canada) should be protected (a right) somehow? We have always been willing to pay our fair share - but rate increases now - NO!! Thank you, Peter and Kathryn Millar
