Dear Ms. Marconi,

RE: EB-2022-0200 - London Property Management Association Technical Conference Estimates

Having reviewed a large portion of the interrogatory responses and seeing the time estimates from a number of parties, LPMA requests 10 minutes for each panel. LPMA further requests that it be slotted near the end of each panel as LPMA expects that any questions it may have will cover areas not covered by other parties or are follow up questions based on the responses provided to other parties.

LPMA notes that while time may need to be adjusted from one panel to another as necessary, LPMA will remain within its total estimate of time of 110 minutes.

Yours very truly,

Randy Aiken
