Dear Nancy Marconi:

Re: Enbridge Gas Inc. (Enbridge Gas, or the Company)
EB-2022-0200 – 2024 Rebasing – Phase 1 Technical Conference Undertaking
Responses

Enbridge Gas filed its 2024 Rates Application and the majority of its supporting evidence on October 31, 2022 and the balance of its evidence on November 30, 2022. In this Application, Enbridge Gas requests approval of rates for the sale, distribution, transmission, and storage of gas commencing January 1, 2024. Enbridge Gas also applies for approval of an incentive rate-making mechanism (IRM) for the years from 2025 to 2028.

On April 6, 2023 Enbridge Gas filed the majority of its undertaking responses from the Technical Conference in accordance with Procedural Order No. 1 and on April 12, 2023 it filed the remaining responses. Subsequent to its April 6, 2023 filing, Enbridge Gas received clarification questions via email from Environmental Defence (ED) and School Energy Coalition (SEC) in relation to the undertaking responses. In its letter to the OEB dated April 11, 2023, in relation to Motions Day, Enbridge Gas indicated that it would provide updated responses to certain undertakings which would address the clarification questions from ED and SEC.

Enclosed please find the updated undertakings which include responses to the ED and SEC clarification questions. Table 1 below sets out the undertakings for which clarification questions were asked and a brief description of the updates provided.

Table 1

Undertaking	Update
JT3.5	Excel file containing surcharge data
JT4.17	Additional information on economic planning horizon
JT5.20	Clarification on easement for Wilson Avenue project
JT6.14	Clarification on design demands impacts
JT8.4	Continuity information for rate derivation
