Dear Registrar,

Re: CONFIDENTIALITY REQUEST – File No. EB-2022-0178

We are today filing Formet’s interrogatories of both the applicant and the intervenor.

Formet’s interrogatories of the applicant contain the following information which we respectfully request be kept confidential pursuant to Rule 10.01 of the Board’s Rules of Practice and Procedure and consistent with the Board’s Practice Direction on Confidential Filings revised December 17, 2021:

Information	Specific Page(s) Redacted	Presumptive Confidential Category	Other Basis for Confidentiality Claim
Information about the load profile, energy usage and billing information of Formet	1-10	(3) Information that would disclose load profiles, energy usage and billing information about a specific customer that is not personal information. Each page of Formet’s interrogatories of the applicant include references to the existing load profile of Formet as well as possible changes or impacts to that load	This information is Formet’s energy load profiles and sources of energy, which are its as financial and commercial information that it consistently treats in a confidential manner.

		profile going forward. One factual scenario described by Formet refers to information reflecting Formet’s actual load profile.
Information about the applicant, including its interactions with other commercial parties	4-5		These passages contain information about the applicants dealings with third parties which Entegrus expects could prejudice those third party’s competitive position or interfere with their negotiations.
Information about Formet, including information about contingency planning.	8-9	(3) Information that would disclose load profiles, energy usage and billing information about a specific customer that is not personal information.	These passages concern contingency planning for supply disruption. Disclosure of this information could potentially prejudice the Customer’s competitive position against competitors if there is an outage; interfere with the Customer’s relationships with customers and suppliers; is likely lead to a significant loss to the customer if disclosed; and contains commercial and technical material that is constantly treated as confidential by the Customer.

Formet’s interrogatories of the intervenor contain the following information which we respectfully request be kept confidential pursuant to Rule 10.01 of the Board’s Rules of Practice and Procedure and consistent with the Board’s Practice Direction on Confidential Filings revised December 17, 2021:
