Dear Nancy Marconi:

Re: Enbridge Gas Inc. (Enbridge Gas, or the Company)
EB-2022-0200 – 2024 Rebasing – Draft Rate Order - Request for Extension

Enbridge Gas filed its 2024 Rates Application and the majority of its supporting evidence on October 31, 2022 and the balance of its evidence on November 30, 2022. In this Application, Enbridge Gas requests approval of rates for the sale, distribution, transmission, and storage of gas commencing January 1, 2024. Enbridge Gas also applies for approval of an incentive rate-making mechanism (IRM) for the years from 2025 to 2028.

On December 21, 2023, the OEB rendered its Decision and Order on Phase 1 of the application. The OEB ordered Enbridge Gas to file a draft rate order attaching a proposed Rate Handbook reflecting the OEB's findings by February 12, 2024.

Enbridge Gas requires additional time and requests an extension to file its draft rate order and proposed Rate Handbook by February 16, 2024.

If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Innis
