Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: Incentive Regulation Mechanism;
 Board File No. EB-2007-0615;
Interim Rates; Effective January 1, 2008

On November 2, 2007, Enbridge Gas Distribution requested that the Board issue an Order declaring Enbridge Gas Distribution's existing 2007 rates to be interim effective January 1, 2008. The following intervenors filed submissions on November 14, 2007 that made "no objection" to this request: Consumers Council of Canada, Industrial Gas Users Association, Schools Energy Coalition, and Vulnerable Energy Consumers Coalition. The Company did not receive any other submissions.

This response is to advise the Board that Enbridge plans to file a QRAM application on November 30, 2007 for interim rates effective January 1, 2008. The QRAM application will include the 2007 approved distribution rates and revisions for new gas costs. These rates would supersede the existing 2007 rates as Enbridge Gas Distribution's interim rates effective January 1, 2008.

Accordingly, Enbridge Gas Distribution does not plan to file a separate set of rate schedules and related material for the interim rates as these rates would be the identical as currently approved other than noted as interim. The notation will be included as part of the QRAM application.

Yours very truly,

Patrick Hoey
 Director, Regulatory Affairs
