EB-2007-0932

Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: EB-2005-0244 Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc. ("EGD")
Transactional Services ("TS") Certification

It has come to my attention that the Transactional Services certification letter, which is normally filed in November of each year, was missed in November 2015. Please accept this letter as the annual certification for the 2015 calendar year.

EGD is required, pursuant to Appendix A of the Board's July 19, 2005 final order in the EB-2005-0244 proceeding to file with the Board an annual written certification in relation to its TS activities. Rules related to EGD's TS activities are set out in the approved TS methodology from the EB-2005-0244 proceeding. The TS Methodology was subsequently revised in 2008 (EB-2007-0932). EGD last filed a certification with the Board on this matter in November 2014. The purpose of this letter is to provide the Board with the requisite certification for the period since.

I hereby certify that, since the date of Enbridge's last certification letter in November 2014, EGD's TS activities have been in compliance with the original TS methodology (EB-2005-0244) as amended by the revised TS methodology (EB-2007-0932).

Sincerely,

Dave Charleson
Vice President, Energy Supply & Business Support
