Dear Ms. Marconi:

Re: EB-2024-0063 – Generic Proceeding to Consider Cost of Capital Parameters and Deemed Capital Structure.

Reformatted and Refiled Sponsored Evidence of Dr. Sean Cleary.

On July 21st we filed, on behalf of AMPCO and IGUA, the jointly sponsored evidence of Dr. Sean Cleary.

On July 22nd we refiled that evidence, in a reformatted version, together with a covering letter. In the rush of work to file, and then refile, that relatively extensive evidence, the explanatory letter filed on July 22nd was a preliminary and incomplete version.

We had intended to file a letter explaining that the evidence as refiled on July 22nd had been reformatted to enhance ease of reader navigation, that the refiled evidence is labelled as “Reformatted” in a new page header, and that in the reformatted version of the evidence:

1. We have supplemented the table of contents by adding a list of the attachments to the evidence (of which there are many).
2. We have inserted page breaks between each main section of the evidence (i.e. sections 1 through 6), so that each main section begins on a new page.
3. We have adjusted the text so that it is all “fully justified” to the margins.

In particular, please note that there are no substantive changes to the evidence in reformatted version, which but for the foregoing formatting changes remains exactly as initially filed on July 19th.

Yours truly,

Ian A. Mondrow
